

Provisional Command Council Directive on the arrangement of an Internet-Media Committee

The necessity for such departments to be created at the discretion of the Provisional Command Council of Nargesalem. for an executive committee tasked with the responsibility of maintaining the Popular Republic's presence on the internet, has been made abundantly clear.

Upon the adoption of this particular Directive, an executive committee is to be arranged under the Provisional Command Council with these responsibilities.

The Committee will be tasked with maintaining some level of presence on the Internet on behalf of the Popular Republic of Nargesalem. Which, at the behest of the Provisional Command Council, includes:

- The creation and maintenance of an online web page for the purposes of providing information about Nargesalem to the general public.
- The creation and maintenance of an online space for the congregation of citizens of Nargesalem, foreign emissaries and envoys, and interested persons.

Signed,

Patre/K
Nakjid

Premier of the Provisional Command Council
